budget period. Defines "revenue" as all income received by the state and all other state funds, excluding the proceeds of bonds or other loans and the balances and income of any trust funds of the state. Defines "expense" as the ordinary operating costs of state government, including any debt service payments made during the budget period and the costs of actuarially funding the accrued liabilities for employees' pension benefits and fully funding the liability for any cost of living increases or other increases or supplements authorized during the budget period for pension benefits. Specifies that this requirement may be suspended if at least two-thirds of the members of the house of representatives and the senate vote to suspend the requirement. Provides that a state budget must appropriate money for the state's pension funds in the amount necessary to actuarially fund the accrued liability of the state's pension funds and to fully fund the liability for any cost of living increases or other increases or supplements authorized during the budget period for pension benefits. Specifies that the provision covers only state general fund revenue. Defines a budget period to be a two year period beginning July 1 of each odd-numbered year.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

- 1 SECTION 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of the
- 2 State of Indiana is proposed and agreed to by this, the One Hundred
- 3 Nineteenth General Assembly of the State of Indiana, and is referred
- 4 to the next General Assembly for reconsideration and agreement.
- 5 SECTION 2. ARTICLE 10, SECTION 5 OF THE CONSTITUTION
- 6 OF THE STATE OF INDIANA IS AMENDED TO READ AS
- 7 FOLLOWS: Section 5. (a) No law shall authorize any debt to be
- 8 contracted, on behalf of the State, except in the following cases: to
- 9 meet casual deficits in the revenue; to pay the interest on the State
- 10 Debt; to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or, if hostilities be
- 11 threatened, provide for the public defense.

SJ 19—SJ 9620/DI 92

1 (b) The following definitions apply to this section only for 2 purposes of the limits on the State budget under this section:

3 (1) "Revenue" means all income received by the State that 4 accrues to the state general fund.

5 (2) "Expense" means the ordinary operating costs of State
6 government that are paid for by appropriations from the state
7 general fund. The term includes any debt service payments 8 made during the budget period and the costs necessary to 9 fund the actuarially recommended contributions for employee
10 pension benefits. The term does not include:

11 (1) a capital expenditure that is paid for without using 12 proceeds of bonds or other loans; or

13 (2) a transfer from the state general fund to another state
14 fund.

15 (3) "Budget period" means the twenty-four (24) month period
16 beginning July 1 of each odd-numbered year and ending June 17 30 of the next odd-numbered year.

18 (c) The total amount of expense appropriations from the state
19 general fund that are enacted by the General Assembly for a 20 budget period may not exceed the estimated state general fund
21 revenue of the State, as determined by law, during the budget
22 period. The requirement under this subsection may be suspended 23 if at least two-thirds of the members of the House of 24 Representatives and at least two-thirds of the members of the 25 Senate vote to suspend the requirement.

26 (d) A court that orders a remedy pursuant to any case or 27 controversy arising under this section may not order any remedies 28 other than a declaratory judgment or such other remedies that are 29 specifically authorized by the General Assembly in a law
30 implementing this section.
